

Display commands

Table of contents | Alphabetical list of commands

These commands change the display of the cell that the script is in.

CELL_COLOR
ROW_COLOR
SHOW

CELL_COLOR

changes the color of the cell

Format:

CELL_COLOR (red , green , blue)

Arguments:

red: a number 0 to 100

green: a number 0 to 100

blue: a number 0 to 100

Available:

Available for spreadsheet windows

Version: 9 and later

Example:

cell_color (100,0,0) turns the background color of the cell red

Top

ROW_COLOR

changes the color of the row

Format:

ROW_COLOR (red , green , blue)

Arguments:

red: a number 0 to 100

green: a number 0 to 100

blue: a number 0 to 100

Available:

Available for spreadsheet windows

Version: 9 and later

Example:

row_color (0,0,100) turns the row background color blue

Top

SHOW

Outputs the number, text or movies/instances to the cell

Format:

SHOW (value)

Arguments:

value: numerical expression, quoted text or instances

Available:

Available for all windows

Version: 9 and later

Example:

show "Hello" displays Hello in the cell

show instances from all timelines displays all the instances from all the timelines in the cell show "label1" or "label2" where row="row1" shows all the instances with "label1" or "label2" in them (from the front timeline) on row1, in the cell

Top

Table of contents | Alphabetical list of command

All documentation and information are © Sportstec

The downloadable examples are free to use as you wish i.e. Public Domain.
